PROJECT ACTIVITIES

In December, we organised a meeting with all sector experts to discuss the status of the UASAPs, the planning of awareness-raising training, and the incorporation of feedback into the NASAP implementation plans.

We organized the seventh sectoral training in Diyarbakır on December 10-11, focusing on public health, energy, and agriculture to raise awareness among local stakeholders. Participants included representatives from public institutions, the private sector, and universities, and the training covered topics such as sectoral adaptation options, recommendations, good practices, and sectoral risks.
